INDIANA UTILITY
REGULATORY COMMISSION

CAUSE NO. 42259

You are hereby notified that on this date, the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission has caused the following entry to be made:

On May 29, 2003, Verizon North, Inc. ("Verizon") filed an Emergency Motion for Immediate Determination Confirming the Scope of this Proceeding; to Strike Prefiled Testimony Inconsistent with Such Determination; and for Suspension of Current Procedural Schedule, Pending the Outcome of Such Determination. Said Motion is incorporated herein by reference.

The presiding judge, being sufficiently advised in the premises now finds as follows:

The Office of the Utility Consumer Counselor ("OUCC") testimony was filed on May 16, 2003. Based upon the filing, no emergency exists. We will treat the Motion as an evidentiary objection to the testimony and request for expedited ruling.

The OUCC should file its written response to said motion by Friday, June 6, 2003. Verizon should file its response to the OUCC's filing by Wednesday, June 11, 2003.

The request for suspension of the procedural schedule is denied. However, Verizon need not file rebuttal to the objected portions of the OUCC testimony until such time a ruling is made on the objection. All other rebuttal should be filed on the agreed-upon date of June 3, 2003.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
